

Romans 1:14-15 (ESV)

"I am under obligation both to Greeks and to barbarians, both to the wise and to the foolish. So I am eager to preach the gospel to you also who are in Rome."

1. All believers are debtors – A debt Dave Ramsey would approve
"I am under obligation" (ESV) "I am a debtor" (NKJV)

One debt we cannot repay (Matthew 6:12; Romans 1:23)

2. The weight of the gospel in our lives places us in debt to others?

Our debt is the debt of l_____. (Romans 13:8)

3. Payment of our debt must be without partiality

Greeks and barbarians

Wise and foolish

4. Payment is made with a r_____ and w_____ heart.
(1 Pet 3:15)

5. How do we pay our debt? "preach the gospel".

Does this mean I have to be a preacher? No.

To preach the gospel means to tell or show good news.
(1 Pet 2:9)

Because we have experienced the transforming power of God's grace in our lives, the gospel obligates us to share this good news with all people, believers and non-believers, without partiality.
