

The Songs of Christmas: Zechariah's Song (Luke 1:67-79)

Prequels often tell the story behind the story. Zechariah's song takes us back to promises God made through the prophets. The prophet Isaiah predicted a Messiah would be born of a virgin who would redeem God's people. He would be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. Many people felt God had forgotten them but Zechariah reveals the deep faith of a Jewish man on the eve of Messiah's birth who knew God had not forgotten. He believed God's promises. Zechariah praises God, reminding us of four important truths this Christmas when we think God has forgotten us.

1. God doesn't forget. He "visits" His people. (vs 68,78)

2. God saves His people. (vs 68-74,77)

3. God releases us from fear. (vs 74-75)

4. God guides our feet into the path of peace. (vs 78-79)

The Songs of Christmas: Zechariah's Song (Luke 1:67-79)

Prequels often tell the story behind the story. Zechariah's song takes us back to promises God made through the prophets. The prophet Isaiah predicted a Messiah would be born of a virgin who would redeem God's people. He would be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. Many people felt God had forgotten them but Zechariah reveals the deep faith of a Jewish man on the eve of Messiah's birth who knew God had not forgotten. He believed God's promises. Zechariah praises God, reminding us of four important truths this Christmas when we think God has forgotten us.

5. God doesn't forget. He "visits" His people. (vs 68,78)

6. God saves His people. (vs 68-74,77)

7. God releases us from fear. (vs 74-75)

8. God guides our feet into the path of peace. (vs 78-79)